

Airline Policy Statement

General

Airline policy commits SKY VISION Airlines to a culture that has safety, security, and compliance monitoring as fundamental operational priorities. This is achieved by well defining the commitment of senior management to a strong culture of safety, security, and compliance. The commitment emanates from the highest levels of SKY VISION Airlines to ensure continual improvement of the management.

- Safety always comes on top of airline priorities and concerns. No compromise in safety
- Effectiveness and airline goals are of prime concern to SKY VISION Airlines.
- All procedures and processes are developed in conformity with ECARs and other regulatory organizations where applicable.
- All managers and individual responsibilities are developed to enable them to focus on safety and compliance goals.
- Investment in training for all airlines Individuals are of prime concern to SKY VISION Airlines. Training conducted up to proficiency.
- To ensure continuing relevance, SKY VISION Airlines policy is reviewed for possible updates regularly. The accountable executive decides update intervals.
- Temporary revisions for updating SKY VISION Airlines policies might be issued where needed.

Accountable Executive
Mr. Amr Abd El Zaher